

Orientation Program on NEP held in Keonjhar DAV school

Naresh Chandra
Pattanayak

Keonjhar : One Day Orientation Training Program on National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 and Professional Ethics was organised in DAV public school on Sunday. The program was conducted under the guidance of principal Ranjan Kumar Kar. Retired professor of BJP Autonomous College, Bhubaneswar Dr. Sudhir Chandra Jena, Head of Political Science department of Ramadevi Women's University Professor Dr. Manas Behera, Head of history department of Kholikote University Professor Dr. Prasant Kumar Narendra attended the program as resource persons. In the program the resource persons taught the teachers detail about the NEP 2020 and its use. They also present details about the professional ethics of a teacher , that groom the teacher in the field of education. In the start of the program secretary of the school Subhas Chandra Jena who is reader in Karanjia Autonomous college, narrates the objectives of the training camp and its use for the teachers. Similar programs will be undertaken in future to enlighten the teachers and students, he said. Among others president of the school committee Niranjana Nayak, members of the committee Ram Narayan Diwedi, Rabi ray were present in the inaugural session. A question and answer program was held among the teachers on NEP and Professional ethics. Participants were distributed certificates at the end of the program. .

BSF Jawans Recover

Malkangiri: Border Security Force (BSF) jawans recovered an improvised explosive device in the foothills of Bejangiwada village of the Malkangiri district on Saturday.

As many as four bags of Gelatin sticks were also recovered from a rocky crevice near Tekguda village under Kalimela police station of the district.

Based on a specific input, BSF jawans launched a joint